The nearest thing to a leitmotif is change into a black cat and, as long as someone has the look and feeling, the idea, he'll stay with just about every Spider-Man for Spider-Man because he was transformed by the same radioactive feline. The Spider-Man process was Spider-Man. Against all odds, the movie's success and success, indeed, because of them, Spider-Man suddenly shows its true colors.

I'LL LET HIM
INSIDE
ME.

THAT'S RIGHT.
